Responsible for collection development, technical services, and archives and special collections.

Queen's University (Kingston, ON)

- Head, Collection Development and E-Resource Management, 2010-2011
Managed collection development, all aspects of e-resource management, and serials.

Queen's University (Kingston, ON)

- Head, Central Technical Services, 2004-2010
Managed acquisitions and cataloguing operations performed by 17 (previously 33) librarians and library technicians. Coordinated a major reorganization of the unit. Oversaw and implemented improvements and changes in policies and practices. Participated broadly in the work of the Library as chair or member of a wide variety of committees and working groups.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology (Cambridge, MA)

- Head, Serials Cataloging Section, 1996-2001

Managed the cataloging policies and procedures for a broad range of serials in all formats held by all nine MIT libraries. Implemented core-level cataloging. Fostered productive liaisons with acquisitions, digital resources, and monograph cataloging areas. Redesigned aspects of the cataloging workflow. Supervised six professional and paraprofessional staff who catalogued and processed all serials. Managed MIT's operational participation in the CONSER program.

National Library of Canada (Ottawa, ON)

- Leader, Serials Team, 1989-1996

Managed a team of people with a diverse and broad mandate to catalogue serials in all formats. Chaired or served on committees which set policies and procedures for cataloging printed and electronic resources. Served as director of ISSN Canada, the Canadian centre of the international ISSN Network. Participated actively in ISSN international meetings and ad hoc task forces. Supervised 17 professional and clerical staff who catalogued and processed all serials for the National Library. Managed the library's operational participation in CONSER.

Other Experience
